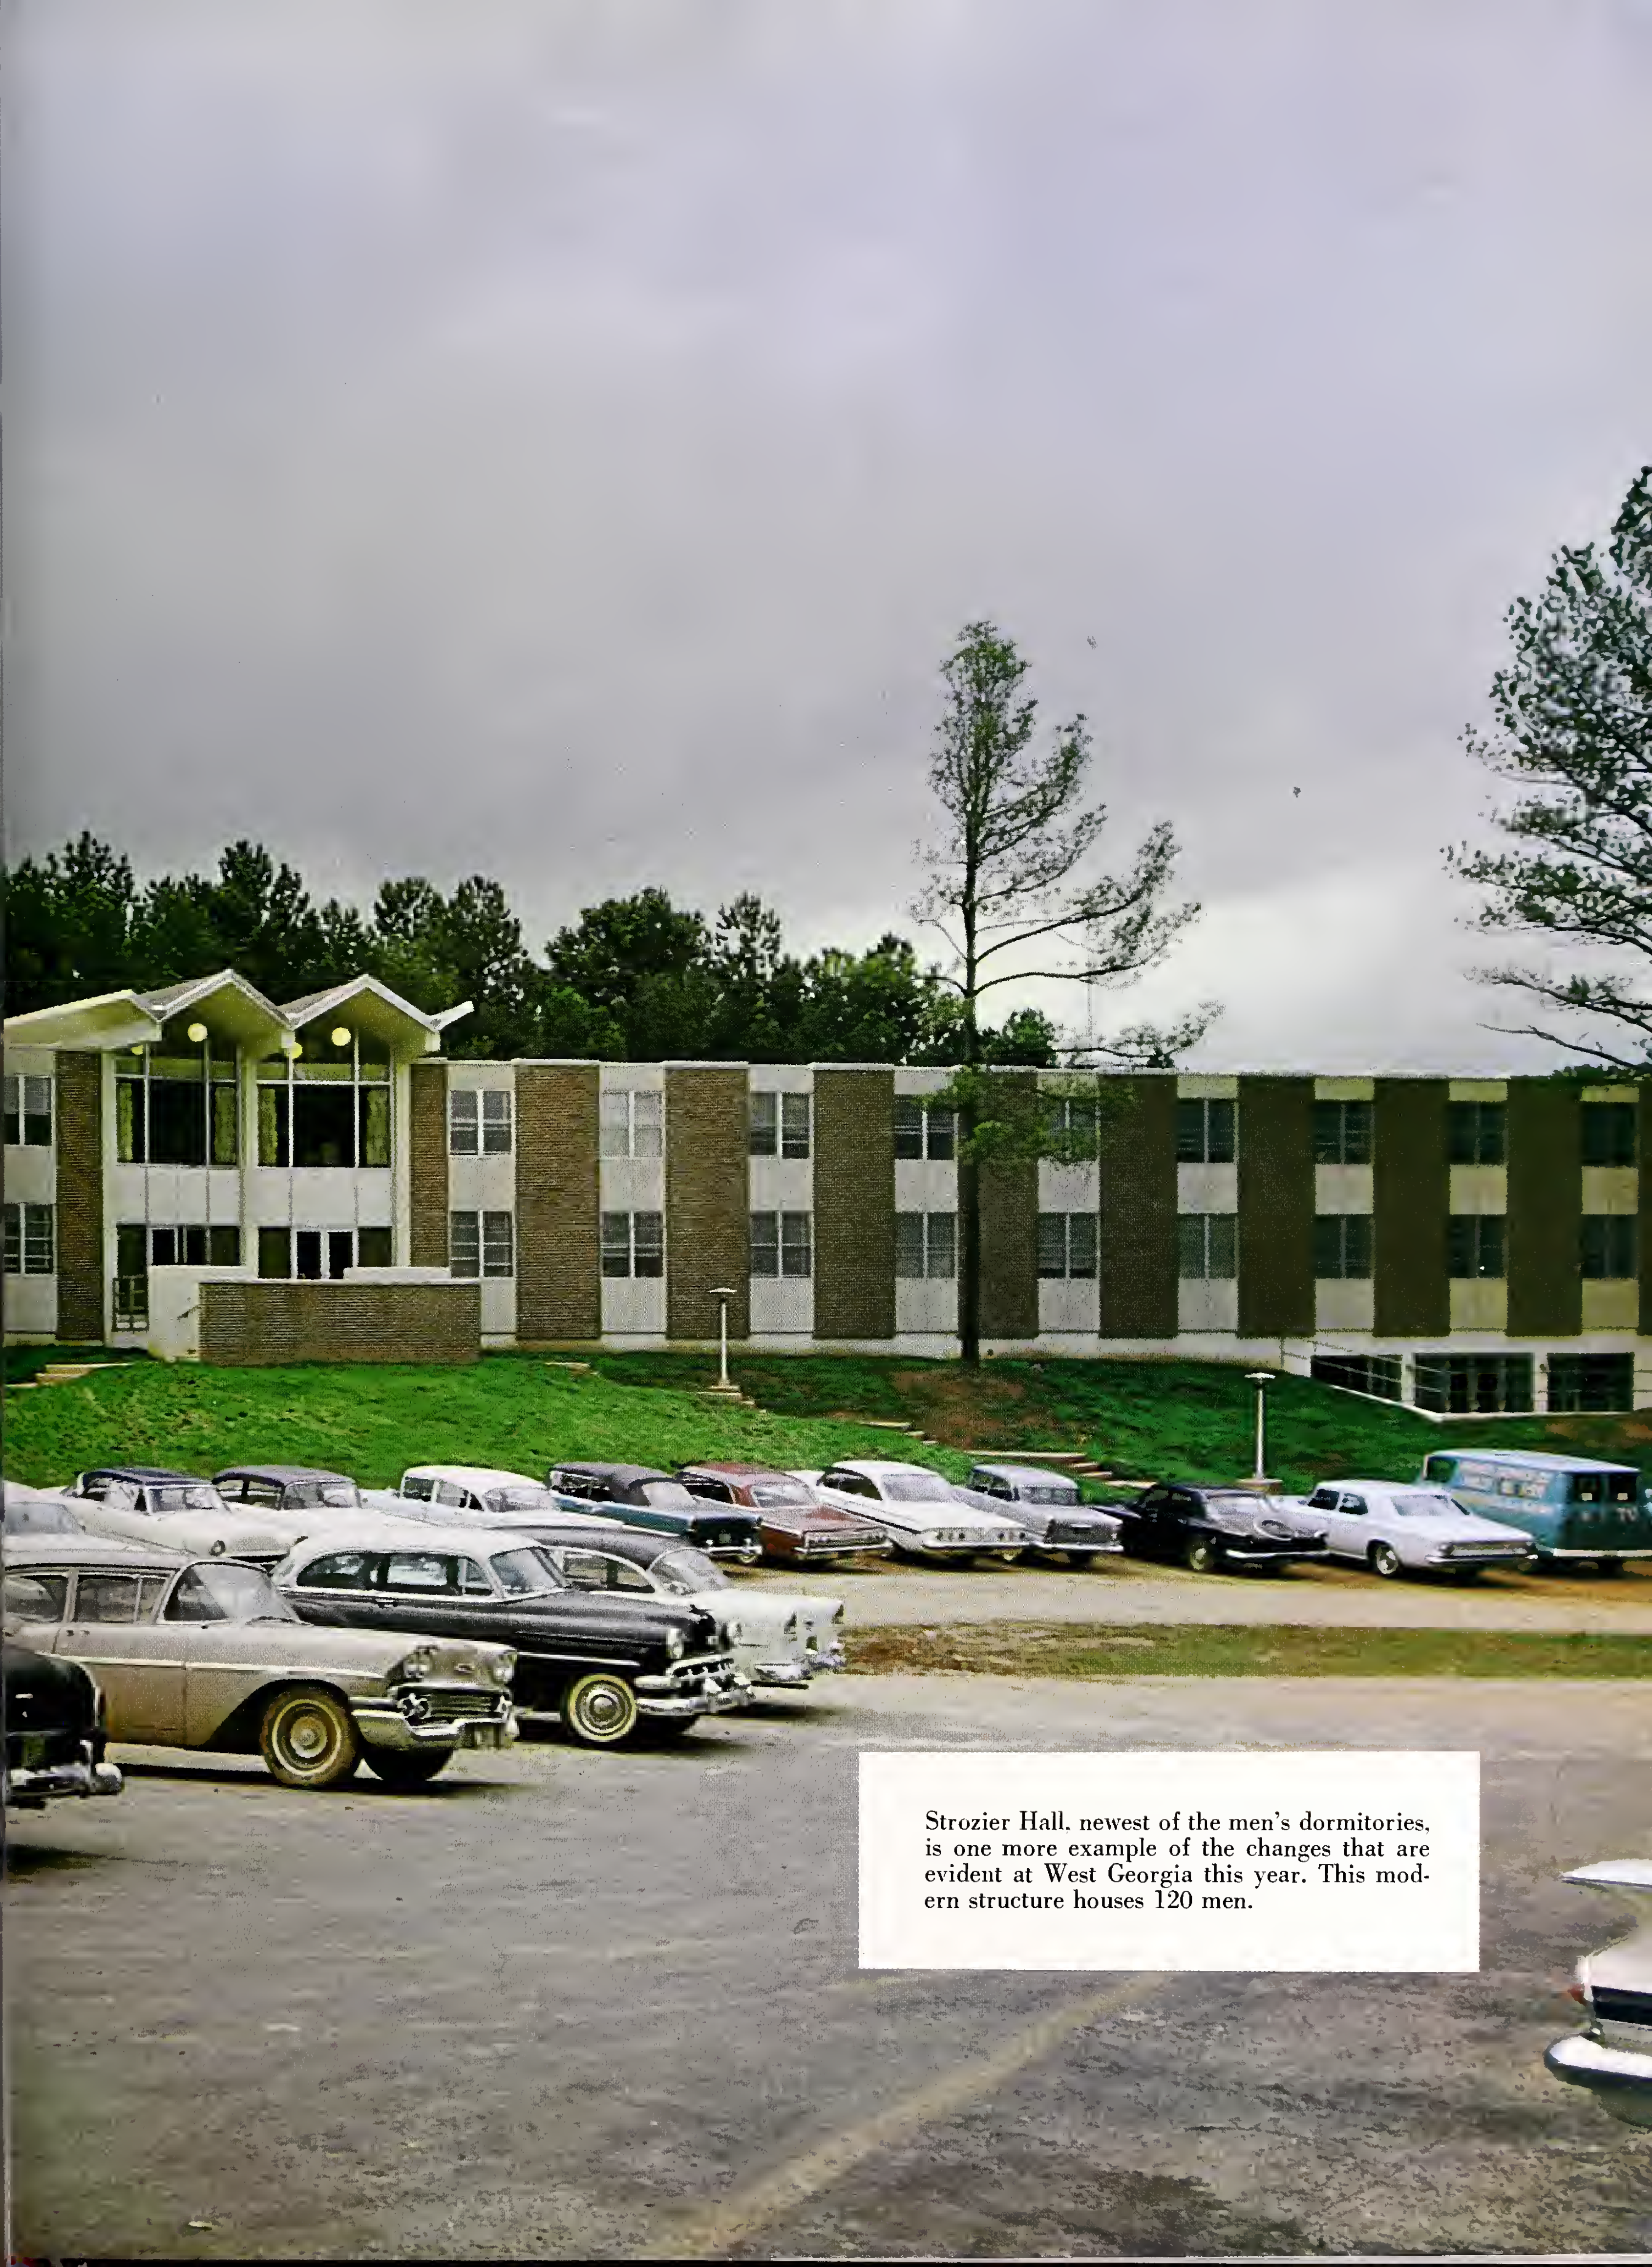
FOREWORD

The many facets of the life of a West Georgia student are reflected in the pages of this book—the mad rush in the dining hall, weekend dances, endless lines, club meetings, basketball, baseball, football and soccer games, registration, room inspections, buying books, and playing bridge—Yet somehow the student still manages to go to classes, take exams, and study. The 1965 CHIEFTAIN has endeavored to depict each of the many phases of the life of a West Georgia student .

In Memoriam

A man of many dimensions and capacities, J. Carson Pritchard was beloved by people in all walks of life. He was a teacher who inspired countless students to the search for truth, a minister who exemplified the finest qualities of compassion for his fellow man, and a nationally recognized authority and pioneer in the field of adult education. For these reasons and for others, we honor the memory of the late Mr. Pritchard, Director of Adult Education and Associate Professor of Sociology, with this volume, the Chieftain of 1965.

Mr. Pritchard stands by as participants in the adult education program register.



Strozier Hall, newest of the men's dormitories, is one more example of the changes that are evident at West Georgia this year. This modern structure houses 120 men.

WEST GEORGIA COLLEGE
A UNIT OF THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF GEORGIA

There have been many changes at West Georgia College. This year, 1964-65, has seen unprecedented growth and progress. As we look about us we see much that is new—freshman students, faculty additions, two dormitories and a chapel. These changes are only part of still bigger plans for the future.

But mixed with all the newness, there still remain familiar sights—friends from last year, old classrooms, and favorite spots on campus.

To this combination of change and tradition—to West Georgia College—we dedicate the 1965 CHIEFTAIN.

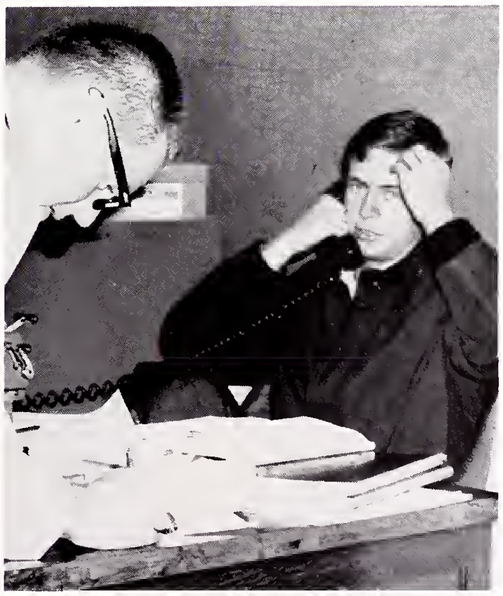
ORGANIZATIONS . . .



STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

PRESIDENT
Wayne Seabolt

The primary purpose and responsibility of the Student Government Association is to educate students on effectively carrying out their individual responsibilities as citizens. This education results from the every-day activities of Student Government; the quality of this education depends on the type of activities available and the number of students inspired to participate in the activities.

The West Georgia Student Government Association is a member of Southern Universities Student Government Association. SUSGA exists as a link of communication between the colleges and universities in the Southeast, enabling the student leaders to exchange ideas and experience in order to benefit one another in their role of service and leadership to their respective student bodies. It provides a means of cooperation among the various institutions for the benefit of all. It does not in any way assume the role of a supervisory organization nor a representative organization that can speak for the students it serves. It is a non-policy making and a non-legislating organization that exists solely to serve the students of the Southeast and to assist student leaders of its member institutions to serve their own student bodies.

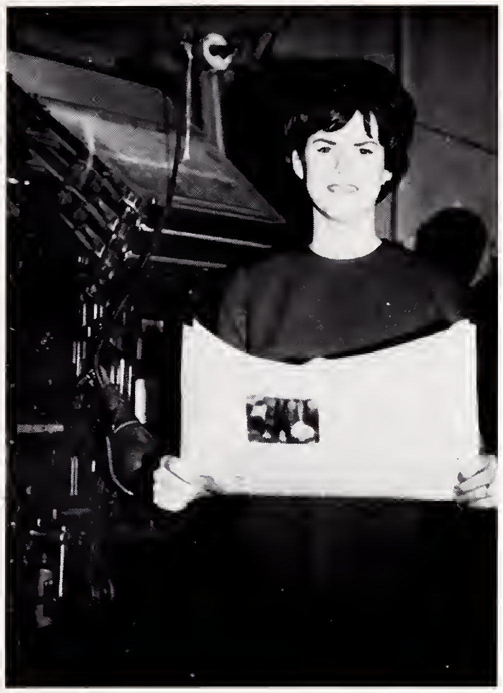
WEST GEORGIAN



Celeta Estes
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

The WEST GEORGIAN has a responsibility to the student body to inform by objective news coverage, to criticize or praise by editorial commentary, and to project the image of West Georgia College to its students, faculty, and the general public. The newspaper provides an opportunity for its staff members to develop journalistic talent in writing, editing, and photography.

The bi-weekly publication received awards for general excellence, feature writing, and news coverage in the Georgia Collegiate Press Association and is recognized as one of the finer senior college newspapers in the South.

Staff members are selected from interested students who show promise in journalism, many of whom later become a credit to the "fourth estate" after their college days come to a close.

ALPHA THETA is the student organization of the speech and drama department of West Georgia College. Its purpose is to stimulate interest and promote skill in acting, directing, and stage management, as well as to further the knowledge of the individual in drama. It also gives each member an over-all concept of the ideals and practices in all aspects of theatre.

The club presents one three-act play at the end of each quarter during the regular school year. Major emphasis is placed on the development of the student as a well-adjusted individual who can express himself easily and effectively. Membership is open to any student interested in drama, who participates in a play production, either by acting or working on stage crews. The drama program of West Georgia College is designed so that audience, crews, and actors may be introduced to many styles of drama and production. The program attempts to embrace as much of the scope of theatre history as possible over a period of several seasons.

The year's activities will be culminated with the annual awards banquet. At this time, recognition will be given to the year's best play, actor, actress, supporting actor, supporting actress, and outstanding technical assistant.

COLLEGE CHOIR

The 1964-65 West Georgia College Choir

Mr. Hugh Deen Directs.

The many activities of the West Georgia College Choir are designed to provide an opportunity for cultural enrichment at the college. To this end, a variety of music is presented, ranging from Handel's "Messiah", to folk tunes, to spirituals, and to melodies from Broadway. The choir gives an opportunity for its members to participate actively in this aspect of our culture.

Much of the choir's work is on the road. In addition to the annual spring tour, the choir gives performances on occasions throughout the year for civic groups, high schools, youth meetings, churches, and other colleges. Often the total annual audience numbers in excess of ten thousand.

On campus, the choir makes a significant contribution to convocations and to graduation exercises. The opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors" and other musicals have been a part of choir activity. The college choir is the core of the mixed chorus of 185 voices for the annual production of Handel's "Messiah."

Often within the choir, the men sing male choruses and the ladies in turn form a treble ensemble. Variety is the Keynote.

Choir soloists, some of whom were featured in the Choir's presentation of the "Messiah".

The Choir frolics by the water on their Spring Tour. This is the highlight of the Choir season for members. They spent a day at Jacksonville, Florida, and were the guests of several towns in the Southeast.

Dr. Robert Coe accompanied Sandra Neill and Walter Plant in the N.A.S.T. Southeastern Vocal Competition, Walter was given the award for Best Male Freshman Vocalist, and Sandra was awarded third place among the Female Freshmen Vocalists. Mr. Hugh Gordon Deen, presenting the awards, was voted "Teacher of the Year" by this association.

The Towne House Trio, the College Choir's Folk Singing group, features Spike Bolen, Martha Brown, and Marion Jordan.

The Three Kings of "Amahl and the Night Visitors", Jim Yeary, Walter Plant, and Jerry Shelly.

The story of the three kings on their journey to find the baby Jesus, and the events occuring when they stop to rest at the humble home of the shepherd-boy, Amahl, and his mother. The boy, crippled from birth, is the focal point of the musical drama. The high moment occurs when—through a miracle of love—the little lad walks for the first time. The miracle occurs when the boy offers his one most prized possession, his self-made crutch, to the Kings as his gift to the new-born King they seek.

The varsity basketball team had to face a tough conference schedule this season with only David Brookins, senior from Atlanta, returning as a starter off last year's fine squad.

Brookins set a new school record in rebounds with 14.1 and scoring with a 19.0 average and a four year total of over 1,000 points. Brookins and Chuck Miller were the first Braves to participate in basketball for four years at West Georgia.

Both Brookins and Jim Jackson were named to the G.I.A.C. all-conference team this year. This was Brookins' second year to be named on the team.

Several underclassmen showed promise of a brighter future and should form the nucleus of a fine team to represent the college in its new gymnasium next season.

After breaking every existing record in the G.I.A.C., and winning three Conference Championships, the 1964 Braves' baseball team came through its greatest season undefeated in conference play with an overall record of 17-2.

Coach Tom D'Armi led his team to victory after victory after overcoming tough early season opponents such as Yale University and conference title-seekers like Berry and Valdosta. The year was sparked with excitement from beginning to end.

Don Thibeault, in the first contest of the year, pitched a perfect game against Bethel College in Tennessee. Later, he hurled his flaming fast ball before 4000 fans to break Yale 3-1. After breaking the Conference strike-out record with 15 in a single game, Thibeault became the fourth ranked pitcher in the nation.

In more close contests than the Braves care to remember, Piedmont, Berry, and Shorter were dropped from contention for the crown. Then only Valdosta remained to be conquered. In the first game of two, the "Rebels" were toppled after 12 grueling innings on the consistent pitching of DeVore and a timely hit by Webb. The second game was easier, and the Braves were champs once again.

COACH D'ARMI

In their greatest thrill of the season, the Braves downed Georgia Southern in the first of two contests of the District 25 N.A.I.A. Play-offs with Jackson ruling the mound. The second game was lost to the arch rivals on a chance error as Blackwell pitched a brilliant one-hitter.

More honors came to the Braves as D'Armi was named "Coach of the Year" in the conference and in District 25 of the N.A.I.A. The Braves placed six men on the All-Conference Team . . . DeVore, Burchfield, Thibeault, York, Jackson. and Daniell. Daniell also became conference batting king with a .367 average. The combined efforts of the pitchers took national honors by giving up the fewest number of bases on balls. DeVore, with an 8-0 record, became the top pitcher in the nation for 65 innings pitched with an ERA of 0.40. DeVore and Burchfield were rewarded for jobs well done by being named to the N.A.I.A. All-America Team. In a crowning achievement, the Braves became a national figure by being the best defensive team in the nation with an unbelievable .977 fielding average. Truly, 1964 was the year that was!

TENNIS TEAM

West Georgia's tennis team made an excellent showing last season and is expected to equal their record this year even though they have lost several of the top players. All the members of this year's team have had a great amount of experience on the tennis courts.

John Niemeyer and Jim Norris, two of last season's stars, are returning hoping to better their record. Niemeyer displayed his ability in matches against Berry, Shorter, and LaGrange as did Norris.

Last year's team placed first in the G.I.A.C. conference with a 7-0 record. They then went to the N.A.I.A. National tournament in Kansas City, Missouri where they placed 20th nationally.

GOLF TEAM

Coaching the golf team this year is Mr. Thomas Leaming. Last year's team ended the season with a good record, and a G.I.A.C. championship. This year's team promises to show as good if not a better record than that in the past.

Matches were held at the Sunset Hills golf course across from the school.

In the past years, participants on West Georgia's golf team have placed high in national ratings. Also, there have been a good many members of the team which have placed in the all-conference category.

TRACK TEAM

This year's track team promises to become one of the best in the G.I.A.C. because many of last year's members have returned. The team has placed either second or third in the conference, and they hope to place as a first place team this time around.

Coach Howard Corder conditions this team for the grueling cross-country meet and has had great success in the past. The fall quarter cross country team won its first G.I.A.C. conference in a runaway. The Braves had three finishers in the top seven.

★ ★ ★

This year's volleyball team also copped the G.I.A.C. championship to start the year off right in athletics.

BOWLING TEAM

The bowling team has had members who have been so outstanding that they were sent to represent West Georgia at the N.A.I.A. National Bowling Tournament in Kansas City, Missouri last year.

Some of these same players are on the team this year, and also good freshman prospects.

Members were chosen in try-out games. All who were accepted are excellent bowlers. Howard Corder is coaching this year's team.

M.A.A.

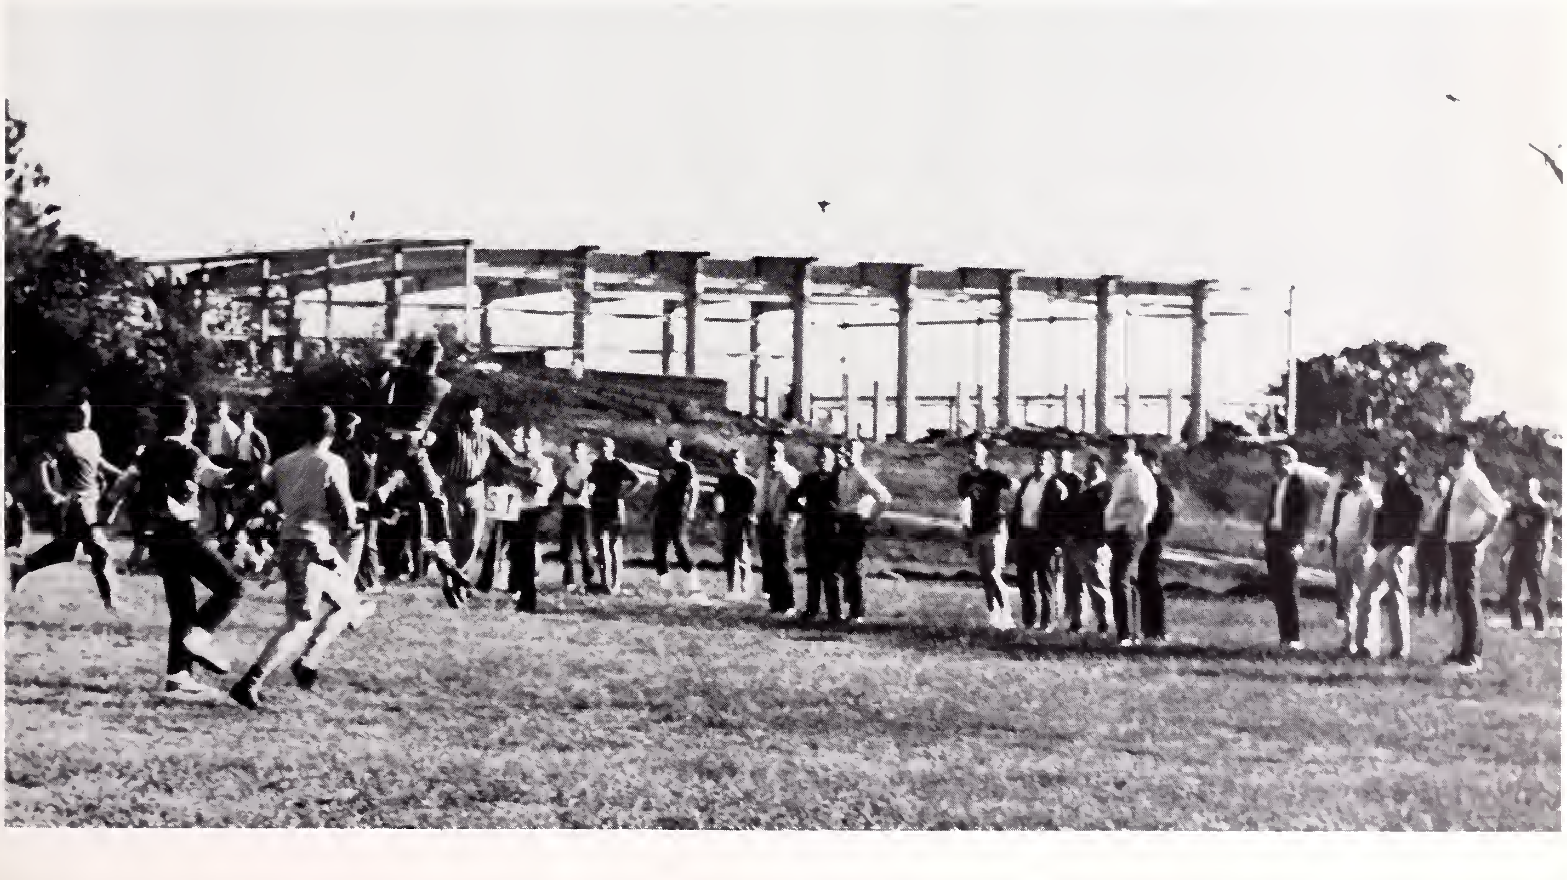
This year the Men's Athletic Association became more of a competitive organization due to the increased membership and interest shown by the individual tribes.

The Apaches again won the football competition after a long, hard struggle. This is the first time in many years that they had to really fight for their title.

Coming in a close second place were the Sioux and in an even closer third place slot were the Seminoles.

Basketball teams were more evenly matched, and all of the games were hotly contested for the title of champion. Winning the first place spot was the Seminole tribe.

All of the games played by the MAA were a series of re-schedules, call-offs and interruptions. Next year, this problem will be solved when the "promised land" on the hill will be complete and ready for use.



APACHES: An excellent team and hard workers, but had to work for title.

Coach Thomas D'Armi joined the West Georgia College faculty in the fall of 1961. Since that time, he has meant a great deal to this college in other areas as well as in sports. He led the Braves to G.I.A.C. baseball championships in 1962, 1963, and 1964, and was chosen as conference "Coach of the Year" at the conclusion of each of these campaigns. He was also named N.A.I.A. District 25 "Coach of the Year" in 1964. He is an excellent coach, as his team's records and his personal honors indicate, and he has become a close friend of many students and faculty members.

Coach D'Armi's home was always open to the members of his baseball squad and he never hesitated to spend his time and energy in helping any student who came to him. We are sure that the West Georgia baseball players will miss him as well as many others. We are sorry that he is leaving and we send with him our very best wishes for the future.

W.A.A.

The Women's Athletic Association is open to all those who wish to participate in an intramural sports program. The girls compete against one another on a tribe basis. Sports such as soccer, basketball, volleyball, badminton, darts, tennis, bowling, and softball are enjoyed by all with much enthusiasm and sportsmanship.

Dear Students:

I wish to extend to all of you my heartiest greetings and best wishes for your success and happiness throughout the years ahead.

It gives me great pleasure to work with you—and for you. My three and one-half years as president of West Georgia College have been the most challenging, stimulating, and satisfying years of my life, largely because of you and the many future students who will follow you. I hope that you, too, have been so challenged and stimulated that there have been few dull moments for you on our campus. Futhermore, I hope that you have developed an intense desire to learn and to make good use of your learning. This should enable you to continue to serve effectively in a rapidly changing world and, at the same time, to live happily with yourself, because you find real joy in learning. With this capacity you should never suffer from boredom.

I wish that I could know each of you and talk with you individually. My door is always open to you, so please feel free to come by whenever it appears that I might be able to advise or help you. You Seniors, in particular, are cordially invited to drop by for a talk before you graduate. We wish to keep in close touch with you as you continue to move forward in the future.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

The Division of Education offers work in education, library science, physical education, and psychology. Secondary curricula are organized in the division offering work in the specific subject-matter areas.

Courses in education are planned to meet the requirements for professional certificates for those students interested in teaching careers on the elementary, junior high, and secondary levels.

The Department of Physical Education offers the physical education activity courses required of each student enrolled in a degree program. Other activities of the Department include the direction of an intramural program and the intercollegiate sports program.

DIVISION OF SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS

The Division of Science and Mathematics offers work in biology, chemistry, engineering, geography, geology, mathematics, physical science, and physics. In addition to the courses offered to meet general·education requirements, majors and minors are offered in the following fields: biology, chemistry, mathematics, and physics.

The Division attempts to meet the needs of three groups of students:

(1) For students whose career choice is non-scientific: An understanding of the methods and philosophy of scientific endeavor and a knowledge of the structure of mathematics accompanied by the acquisition of necessary computational skills.

(2) For the prospective school teacher: to provide the subject-matter competence necessary for the teaching of science and mathematics.

(3) For the prospective career scientist or mathematician: to provide ready entrance to graduate school or immediate employment.

DIVISION OF HUMANITIES

The Division of Humanities includes the fields of English language and literature, modern languages and fine arts. One of the chief objectives is to help the student become increasingly aware of the great literary and cultural heritage of our civilization.

The members of the Division are interested in seeing that the student develops independent powers of judgment, inner discipline, and creative expression sufficiently so that he can rely on his own critical faculties and can respect his own creative achievements. The curriculum offers the student many opportunities to become aware of his own creative potentials through the actual production and handling of materials.

Therefore, the aims of the Social Science Division are to help the student attain a constructive, inquiring attitude toward learning, gain a knowledge of the historical development of contemporary institutions, and develop a responsibility for intelligent participation in the affairs of society.

The Division offers liberal arts majors and minors in history, political science and sociology, a major in economics-business administration, and terminal programs for secretaries, medical secretaries and legal secretaries.

Editor's Epitaph

The 1965 CHIEFTAIN has gone to press. The mad rush is over—for this year. I won't say that it wasn't fun, because at times it was. However, I won't say that it was the easiest task I ever undertook, because it certainly wasn't that either.

Inevitably any editor of anything always says that it couldn't have been done without the staff. At the risk of being trite, I, too, am saying it, because I do not think that anyone could have put out an annual without the excellent help that I've had.

To Ranscine Pelt, my old stand-by, I offer grateful appreciation. To Charles Applebee who climbed trees, stood in the rain, and missed meals to get pictures—all I can say is thanks. Good ol' Larry Naylor was invaluable because he not only managed his section very well, but helped with the others. My deepest thanks go to the rest of the staff: Bruce, Mary and Pam, Pat and Carolyn, Martha, Betty and Margaret, Chris, Lynda and Jane, Jim and June, Becky and Carolyn, Sandy and Tommy, and Patsy.

To David Parkman, our advisor, goes more than just thanks. He was always there when he was needed. We might never have made it without him.

All of these people did a great deal of work. It looks so easy when you see the finished product put together, but anyone who was around during the process knows that panic, frustration, and a lot of effort is what got the CHIEFTAIN published.

So, people, here it is. We hope you like it. If you want to make it even better next year, help by actually joining the staff and working and most of all, help by giving your help and if you can't do that, help by giving your support and cooperation to those who are on the staff.
